SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE HONOLULU POLICE DEPARTMENT TO ESTABLISH A FAMILY VIOLENCE UNIT STAFFED WITH OFFICERS SPECIFICALLY TRAINED TO HANDLE ALL COMPLAINTS OF FAMILY VIOLENCE.

1 WHEREAS, domestic violence is an epidemic affecting 2 individuals in every community, regardless of age, economic 3 status, race, religion, nationality, or educational background; 4 and

5
6 WHEREAS, according to the National Coalition Against 7 Domestic Violence, one in every four women will experience 8 domestic violence in her lifetime; and

9
10 WHEREAS, domestic violence is one of the most chronically 11 underreported crimes; and

12
13 WHEREAS, according to a federal Bureau of Justice
14 Statistics Factbook, the most common reasons given by domestic 15 violence victims for not contacting the police included victims
16 fearing retaliation, considering an incident a private or 17 personal matter, or believing the police would not be able to do 18 anything about an incident; and

19
20 WHEREAS, a victim of officer-involved domestic violence may 21 be more hesitant to report abuse for a number of reasons,
22 including fears of retaliation or lack of confidence the victim 23 will be treated fairly by an officer's colleagues; and

24
25 WHEREAS, other police departments throughout the nation and 26 elsewhere in the world have set up specific divisions to handle
27 domestic violence cases, such as the Houston Police Department's 28 Family Violence Unit and the Philippine National Police Women
29 and Children Protection Desk; and 30

S.C.R. NO. 28

1 WHEREAS, these specific divisions can help ensure that 2 domestic violence incidents are treated in the same professional 3 manner as other crimes and requests for police service; and 4

5 WHEREAS, establishing a family violence division within the 6 Honolulu Police Department will help reduce violence, ensure 7 compassionate assistance to victims, and enable more effective 8 prosecution of abusers; now, therefore,
9

10 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-eighth 11 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2015, the 12 House of Representatives concurring, that the Honolulu Police
13 Department is requested to establish a family violence unit
14 staffed with officers specifically trained to handle all 15 complaints of family violence; and 16

17 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the officers within the family
18 violence unit should be able to respond to initial calls for 19 service based on domestic violence, be well-equipped to assist 20 victims of domestic violence, and ensure the effective
21 enforcement of the State's domestic violence laws; and 22

23 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the officers within the family
24 violence unit should be separate from the detectives of the 25 Department's Criminal Investigation Division's child abuse and 26 domestic violence detail; and 27

28 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the family violence unit should 29 be staffed with female police officers who have undergone 30 appropriate training, including gender-sensitive training, so 31 that they are best equipped with the knowledge, training, and 32 skills needed to assist victims of domestic violence; and 33

34 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Honolulu Police Department
35 is urged to explore federal opportunities, including the federal 36 S.T.O.P. Violence Against Women formula grant program, for 37 assistance with funding the family violence unit; and 38
39

S.C.R. NO. 28

1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copy of this 2 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Chief of the 3 Honolulu Police Department.
